Their escorts and dancing partners were Dennis Newton, Percy Berry, Charles Stepps, Freddie Baldwin, Garrett Williams, Lewis Harris, James Kimbrough and Charles Wilson.

After each deb bowed, she descended a stairway to join her father and then her mother who was seated in the ballroom. Mothers toasted their daughters with a glass of champagne indicating the close Mother-Daughter relationship in social and educational endeavors.

A highlight of the evening was the crowning of the queen. This years queen is Amelie Ann Berry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Berry. Amelie is a senior at Wilson High School where she is a member of the German Club. Her hobbies are sewing and hair styling. She plans to attend Weaver Airline Personnel School in Kansas City, Mo., to become a ground hostess or work in the control tower. She speakes, reads and writes German which will aid her in her airlines career.

Red Rose Dance

The Dance, "Windmill of your Mind," was presented by the Debs before dancing with their escorts.

Esther Hankerson takes the arm of her father, the Rev. Hankerson, on the floor.

Mrs. Charles Stubblefield, honorary chairman, assisted genial Jack Tanner, master of ceremonies, who announced the name of the debutante and that of her parents. After her bow, she was joined by her sponsor (a father, relative or close family friend) to make the promenade along the red carpeted runway.

Pre New Years Dance Held at Youth Center

A get together of the young and old was the main idea of the dinner-dance held at the Malcolm X Youth Center.

The dinner was sponsored by Youth Outreach and the Youth Contact Foundation. The smorgasbord type dinner consisted of turkey, ham, potatoes, gravy, macaronie, green beans, cake, and pie.

Tables and chairs were donated from various organizations. Churches in the area also donated money to help make the dinner successful.

After the dinner, the younger set and the young adults jammed to the sounds of the Paul Rickerson Trio. This band really gets down. Total attendance was approximately three hundred and fifty people.

The Youth Council extends thanks to the Young Couples and all the people who donated or participated in this event because it's not often that the Youth and Young Adults are able to get together and really get down.

We would also like to extend special thanks to the Paul Richardson Trio for a beautiful performance.

The success of this event indicates that when the Youth and Young Adults get together, something is going to come out right-on, because they're the ones who have it all. It's got to be right.

SNORTING, SMOKING OR SHOOTING UP SOMETHING?

American Lake Drug Treatment Program announced a formal opening on Monday, Dec. 27th. This program is open to veterans and some active duty military personnel that have any problem with drugs.

The purpose of this program is to encourage residents (drug users) to develop an understanding of their own individual reasons for turning to drugs and adoption of possible alternatives to drug usage. This involves environmental therapy with strong resident involvement in the process.

Esperience has shown that there is an increasing problem within our community among Black veterans that have become involved with drugs either in service, on active duty in Viet-Nam or since returning and being discharged. These Brothers and Sisters need to be informed of the services and facilities that our program is offering them.

To get it on, contact Brother Bruce Ransom or Brother Elvin Walker, at JU 8-2185, Ext. 295.

Boys' Club News

In the past few weeks we haven't been on our JOB! But we're returning this week on upcoming info on various activities that are happening at the DTBC 1972. This year the club has seven basketball teams from the 4th grade to the 12th grade students, who are not playing high school basketball.

The teams have already been involved in play last year in the Christmas tournament. Two of the teams submerged as champions; the 6th and 7th graders. The 7th graders are coached by Tom and Steve Mustin; Donald Leebrick and Bruce Robinson coach the 6th grade team. Two other teams succeeded to the semi-finals, the Sr. Team which was coached by Henry Rivers and the Jr. Team which is also coached by Honk Rivers.

BOXING PREPARATION

Coach Joe Clough and his boxing team are in preparation for the Jan. 14-15 Golden Gloves. Ray Seales, Wilbur Seales, Dale Grant, Mitchell Mays, and Larry Smith will be a few of the young men participating in the Gloves. Some of the young men are hoping that they will be able to make the Olympic Golden Gloves.

THANKS

Members of the DTBC would like to express our deepest thanks to the Omicron Chapter ESA, for the donation they presented to the Club.

1972 ... THINK ABOUT IT ... IT'S BEEN A LONG TIME COMING ... BUT IT'S HERE

The magnificent Brothers and their ole' ladies cooked at the Malcolm X Youth Center last Thursday along with the Paul Richardson Trio.

Turkey, dressing, pig, cake, beans, potatoes, and punch was prepared by (supposely) the top "Soul Burners" in town. Mrs. Johnson was at her usual best with Hundu performing up to par. An outstanding entry of turkey and dressing was said down by our number one , agmofocemt b magni icent Brother --- Skinner. He got down so hard on his dressing that it makes your mouth go WOW. No kidding.

Everyone pitched in and helped the brothers and their ole' ladies to put the gig on to wish the brothe 's and sisters a better New Year .... if we can help it.

The agencies around the community did what they could to help out, which would be a real nice New Years resolution for them to make .... Thanks Agencies.

WHAT IS A HILLTOP JAYCEE

One of the points of the Jaycees creed is that "service to humanity is the best work of life." Jaycees, a service organization on a State and National level has four local chapters in the Tacoma srea.

Hilltop Jaycees have been active since June 1969 providing service to make Tacoma a better place to live, as well as providing young men between the ages of 21 and 35 an effective means for self improvement and social fellowship.

The Hilltop Jaycees visits all area Correctional Centers, to give our Brothers moral suppport and help in any way possible, such as getting a Brother out early on a work release program. We also provide recreation such as Carnivals, Pitch Hit & Throw Program, Summer Camp for youth.

We stress physical fitness and sportsmanship for its members through participation in Basketball, Football, Tennis, Golf, and Out door Camping.

We recognize the contributions of active concerned citizens with the distinguished service award and honors for outstanding Lawmen and Educators anually with awards and banquets.

Wives participation in Jaycees in an Auxiliary organization known as a Wive's Club. Although the Wives have not chartered as a club, they help the Jaycees when and where ever possible.

There are many other worthwhile services the Hilltop Jaycees can provide in the field of education, employment, personal development, environmental control, recreation, government, crime prevention, safety, health and drug abuse education.

The possivilities are limited only by the imagination of the chapter and the size of the organization. The key is the willingness and ambition of its members.

The Hilltop Jaycees have 21 members and have set their goal of signing of 19 new members by May 1972.

The size of the local chapter determine the amount of service that Hilltop Jaycees can devote to improve Tacoma.

There are many interested young men in Tacoma who have not been asked to participate in Jaycees. Young man, this is not because you are not wanted; we have not been able to identify you. If you call Gr 4-5050, our President, Chuck Harbour will welcome you.

Your local Jaycees meet on Thursday each week at 8:00 p.m. at the TIKI Banquet room.

Although we are not an all black club, you may find a significant change in the quality of your life and the lives of those around you. Service to humanity is indeed the best work of life.

NEA to honor Dr. King

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The representative assembly of the nation's largest professional organization, the National Education assn., proclaimed Jan. 15 as Human Relations Day in memory of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., during the annual NEA convention in Detroit last June.

Calling for President Nixon to declare Dr. King's birthday a national holiday, the association has urged its 9,000 state and local affiliates and its 1.1 million members to plan observances.

Following passage of the NEA resolution, Dr. King's widow, Coretta King, met with the NEA president Donald E. Morrison, and Samuel B. Ethridge, NEAs assistant executive secretary for teacher rights. Excerpts of this meeting are featured in the January issue of Today's Education, official journal of the NEA.

Mrs. King describes the purpose, activities and goals of the proposed Martin Luther King Memorial Center to be built in Atlanta, Ga. Designed to cover a four-block area, the center will include exhibition halls, films, books and other memorabilia of the black movement in the 1900's, and an extensive library, a research center and teacher training programs in nonviolence.

Regional Martin Luther King Jr. Centers both here and abroad will be promoted. "Their primary function would be the education and training of youth particularly at the high school level and the development of teachers to train such youths," Mrs. King told Morrison and Ethridge.

Asked by Morrison what schools might do to improve human relations, Mrs. King replied: "Schools ought to see themselves as laboratories in democracy . . . we tend to segment areas of knowledge and teach students certain information without having them understand how the information is going to be of value to them."

Disturbed by a seeming lack of interest in the current civil rights movement, Mrs. King charged that the "leadership of this nation, and I mean the top leadership, has given civil rights a very low priority. . . there has been a lack of response from this administration. . . a seeming lack of understanding of the needs. We are not getting the kind of cooperation we should have from the federal government."

SPECIAL PERFORMANCE — The Jackson 5, in their only Christmas season appearance, gave a special performance at the Foundation for the Junior Blind in Los Angeles, Calif. Joe Jackson, father of the famous Motown recording artists, said it was the group's most important performance of the year. The Jackson 5 can currently be seen on Saturday mornings in their own animated series on ABC-TV.

1960 OLYMPIC DECATHALON CHAMPION RAFER JOHNSON was married Saturday to Miss Betsy Thorsen, California school teacher, in St. Andrews Presbyterian Church in Newport Beach, Calif. Reception was in the bayfront home of the bride's parents.

JESSE JACKSON STARTS OWN CIVIL RIGHTS ORGANIZATION.—The Rev. Jesse Jackson, former head of the S.C.L.C. Operation Breadbasket in Chicago, is shown here as he made the announcement on December 18 that he has started his own civil rights organization to be called People United to Save Humanity (PUSH). Jackson, who was suspended as director of Operation Breadbasket by the parent organization, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, on December 3, resigned five days later, stating that he could not accept the 60-day suspension as there was too much work to be done. He compared his new organization to "the birth of a child." He said that his new organization was formally "born" on Christmas Day—(UPI Telephoto).

Nixon Signs Welfare Bill; Work Required

KEY BISCAYNE, Fla.—(UPI)—President Nixon, declaring that the United States "scorns the freeloader," has enacted a requirement that able-bodied welfare recipients register for work or job training.

After signing the controversial measure Tuesday at his vacation villa, Nixon issued a statement in which he praised the "workfare" provisions.

"We are a nation that pays tribute to the working man and rightly scorns the freeloader who voluntarily opts to be a ward of the state," the President said.

The work or job-training provision in order to keep welfare benefits was written into the bill that Nixon signed basically came from the President's board welfare reform proposals at the beginning of the 92nd Congress. The new law takes effect July 1.

There is a work requirement for welfare recipients now, but it generally is up to state agencies to decide who must register. Some states have required registration, but many have not.

The new provision would make it mandatory to sign up, and could affect an estimated two million adult welfare recipients.

The new law exludes mothers with children under 6 years of age, children under 16, the ill, aged or people who are required to care for the incapacitated.

Deaths Of Major Leaders Among Interesting Stories Of 1971

By RUSSELL HOCHALL

The year 1971 has gone into history as one of drift in some areas and marked change in others.

There was little change in the tough Nixon Administration attitudes on race. Several militants were freed after trials on murder charges.

A major racial development was the spate of prison riots which developed late in the year, in which many lost lives were ultimately blamed on officials' poor judgment.

Nationally, President Nixon started some unexpected switches during the summer, announcing his Peking journey in June and abandoning his economic game plan in August.

The summer also saw the first automobile on the moon.

Astronauts Scott and Worden could have called back for highway surveyors.

Internationally, the guard was changed in Liberia and Haiti, as William R. Tolbert and Jean-Claude Duvalier peacefully succeeded to the presidencies of those countries.

William V.S. Tubman, 26-year president of Liberia, died at 75 July 23 after an operation in a London clinic. Francois "Papa Doc" Duvalier, president of Haiti for life, died in April, shortly after relinquishing power to his son.

Other developments were:

JANUARY

The Congressional Black Caucus boycotted the State of the Union message, beginning a five-month controversy with the President. . . . The Rev. J. T. Vivian, a Chicago rights leader, said he was on a list of people being watched by a special Army intelligence unit. Later in the year, the government said civilian surveillance by Army personnel had been halted.

FEBRUARY

Satchel Paige on his way to the Baseball Hall of Fame told AFRO columnist Sam Lacy he was 64.

MARCH

Whitney M. Young Jr., executive director of the National Urban League, drowned while swimming in Lagos Nigeria.

An older, less poetic Muhammad Ali, lost his bout for the heavyweight championship to sometime singer Joe Frazier.

APRIL

Rep. Ronald V. Dellums, D. Calif., joined a Vietnam protest by discarding his medals. ... Warren Widener was elected mayor of Berkeley, Calif., with a radical council faction.

MAY

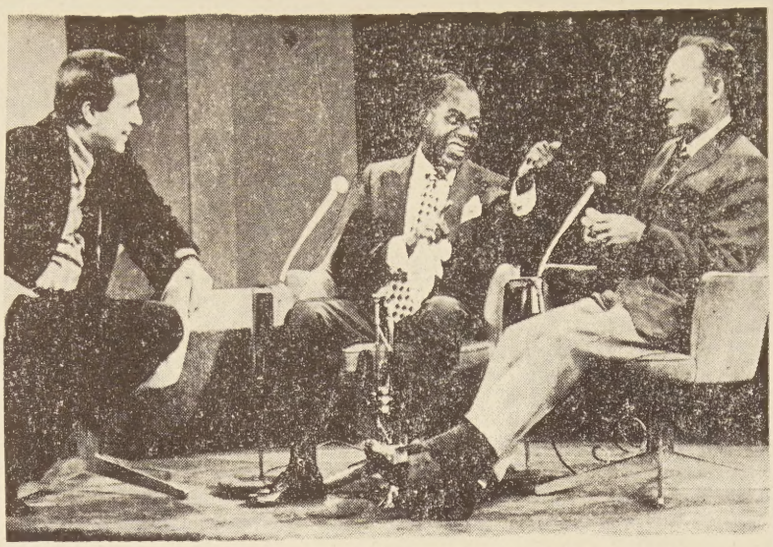
Panther Bobby G. Seale was found innocent by a Connecticut jury of order-

JUNE

Muhammad Ali, one-time boisterous poet of the ring, had his draft evasion conviction unanimously reversed by the Supreme Court. The justices found Ali's Muslim convictions sincere and said there should have been no question about his status.

JULY

Gabriel called Satchmo early in the month and famed jazz trumpeter Louis Armstrong was buried in New York without the funeral pageantry he had helped create for others in New Orleans. A jazz procession was conducted later in the Crescent City.



LOUIS ARMSTRONG (C) who made his last public appearance on David Frost Show in March 1971, chats with Bing Crosby and David Frost.

DR. RALPH BUNCHE

AUGUST

San Quentin Prison authorities said George Jackson, co-defendant with Angela Davis in the 1970 Marin County shootout and one of the Soledad Brothers, was killed in an escape attempt. Five others were killed in the incident.

SEPTEMBER

Attica burst on the national consciousness as 43 persons died at the New York prison when state police crushed a prisoner rebellion there. Controversy continues as to who was responsible for the massacre.

OCTOBER

Mrs. Patricia R. Harris was named credentials chairman for the 1972 Democratic National Convention after a factional fight with Sen. George McGovern of South Dakota, author of many party reforms.

H. Rap Brown was captured in New York after a bar shootout. Maryland authorities said they would seek extradition.

President Nixon nominated William H. Rehnquist, an assistant attorney general, and Lewis F. Powell, former president of the American Bar Association, to vacancies on the Supreme Court. Both were confirmed later.

NOVEMBER

Off-year elections brought several defeats. Charles Evers put together a political infrastructure in Mississippi while carrying some minor candidates with him to defeat in the governor's race.

Carl Stokes found he could not pick his successor as mayor of Cleveland and, in fact, helped elect Ralph J. Perk, a Republican ethnic to that office.

In Philadelphia, rights leaders' protests were unable to overcome defections and a strong Democratic registration as former Police Commissioner Frank L. Rizzo was elected mayor.

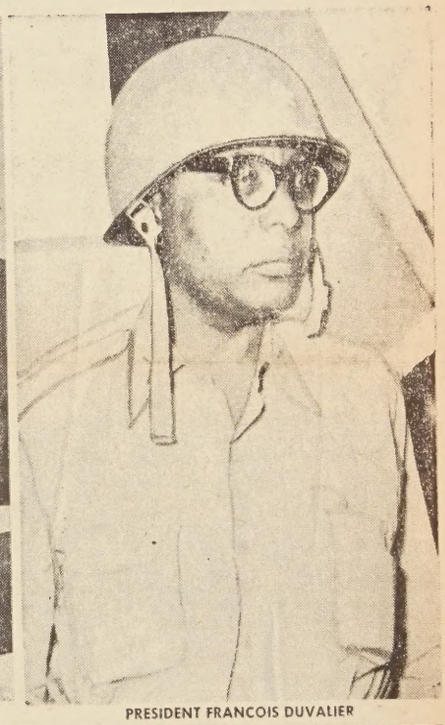
When a riot erupted at Rahway State Prison, Gov. William Cahill of New Jersey helped correct the situation without loss of life.

DECEMBER

As the year closed, several Memphis policemen were under indictment in the death of a youth. An autopsy showed that the youth had not died as the result of an auto accident, as the policemen had said.

Panther leader Huey P. Newton was free of murder charges for the first time in four years after a third jury could not agree on his guilt. The prosecution decided against another trial.

WHITNEY M. YOUNG JR.



PRESIDENT FRANCOIS DUVALIER

Ralph J. Bunche, deputy secretary general of the United Nations died in December. He had been in poor health for some time. After working at the State Department for several years, he joined the world body shortly after its inception and won the Nobel Peace Prize for settling the 1949 Arab-Israeli war.

There was little progress in the African liberation struggle. An example of this was the Anglo-Rhodesian agreement which indefinitely postponed majority rule in Britain's former colony.

The Nixon administration remained predictable, with the President opposing school busing while doing very little to eliminate the need for it.

This was evident in the protracted wrangling over construction of public housing in Forest Hills, N.Y.

The foreign policy kite, which soared with the ping pong diplomacy, was nearly grounded by Bangla Desh. Intransigent, uncritical support for Pakistan allowed the Soviet Union to score a major coup with India.

LOVE
by D. R. Hylton

Love is a world if giving,
A world of caring,
Receiving and trust.

Love teaches you about
Mankind; The good and the Bad, the heartache and the Rejoicing.

Love is the recognition
That all men are on earth
For a purpose.

Love is concern for your Fellow man, because he's Human, just as you are.
He's trying to do what he Think's right. The way
In which he goes about
Accomplishing his goal, may
Not be to your approval; But
Love teaches you not to point
The finger, or say things you
Wouldn't want said about Yourself.

Love teaches you to accept
What is now and if there is a
Way to better the situation,
Without malice, then only through love can you find the way.

Love is remembering the past
And being fully aware of the present.

Love is being able to cry with someone who understands,
And being able to smile when
You are happy, or when you
Wish to make someone happy,
Even when you hurt.

Love is being able to talk about
What is on your mind and ....
in your heart.
Love is not a luxury, but an Absolute Necessity for living.
LOVE IS LIFE!!!
